LOCAL MISCELLANY.

BREAKING UP A BAND OF RIVER THIEVES. THE "NORTH RIVER PIRATES," AFTER MANY THEFTS, WORK PEACEFULLY IN NEW-JERSEY

PRISONS. For ten years, and until very recently, the North River Pirates," a band of nine adroit and desperate river thieves, carried on their operations along the water-front of New-York and Jersey City, and the value of the property stolen from steamships and vessels amounted to not less than $500,000. Their head-quarters were at Charlton and West-sts., and the police my that the band was the terror of the neighborhood. The members were bold, and never hesitated to shoot down a watchman if their plunder was endangered or their escape imperished. They were often pursued by the harbor patrol, but only empty boats or unarmed boatmen rewarded the police for their pursuit. No of sufficient to convict were ever found about them. The river proved a convenient accomplice, and to throw over stolen goods or unlawful weapons was quick work.

Among the most indefatigable of the pursuers of the pirates" was Roundsman James Jones, of the Harbor Police. The band warned him repeatedly that if he ever fired upon them they should return his fire, but they never did, although Jones gave them ample opportunity. The roundsman is a stalwart man, who says that he would be a dangerous man to trifle with when aroused.

The events that led directly to the first capture and final destruction of the "North River" band were as follows: Jones, who had long watched their movements, discovered where they kept their boats, and one day in October last missed two of them. Early on October 10, the dock of the Bremen Steamship Company, at Hoboken, was robbed of silks and velvets valued at $2,500. A boat with two men was seen near the place by the roundsman while patrolling in a small boat. He hailed them, and receiving no reply, fired, and the men hastly pulled away. They soon after abandoned the boat, which was filled with the plunder. The fugilitives were recognized by Officer Kehoe, and subsequently Chief Donovan, of Hoboken, arrested William Scanion and Michael Cassidy and locked them up in the Hadson County jail. They proved to be old frequenters of Bisackwell's Island. Daring their insurisonment they sent to the band for money to defend their case, and by watching the messages the others were found to be "Mike" Cavanagh, John Sheehey, alias "sheehan," William Grady, "Young Tim" Mahoney, John Finnell, "Big Mike" Shanahan and "Little Mike" Shanahan. By twos and singly Jones and his colleagues captured the fugitives. "Big Mike" and Grady went to Buffalo. A dr-scent was made upon their house. "Big Mike" leaped from a fourthstory window and escaped, but Grady was captured. Cavanagh, "Little Mike" and Sheehey were captured by Chief Donovan, Superintendent Wailing, Captain Kennedy, Sergeant, now Captain Schulitz, and others. "Young Tim" Mahoney fied to Chicago; Finnell, brother of the man who shot "Ned" O'Baldwin, the Irish Giant, was chased through Pennsylvania, and Jound refuge in California.

Scanion, Cassidy, Cavanagh, "Little Mike" Shanahan, boken, was robbed of silks and velvets valued at $2,500.

California.
Scanion, Cassidy, Cavanagh. "Little Mike" Shanahan, Shaehey and Grady, all of whom except the first two were captured in this State, were taken to New-Jersey on a requisition by Romadaman Jones, were convicted of roboory, and each received a sentence of ten years in the New-Jersey State Prison at hard labor. When too late, some of them tried to clear themselves by betraying their comrades, but they gained nothing by their treachery.

ACCIDENTS ON THE ELEVATED ROADS. THREE MEN INJURED ON THE EAST SIDE-COLLI-

SION BETWEEN TWO TRAINS ON THE METRO-POLITAN ROAD.

The breaking of an over-weighted piece of scantling at Forty-second-st. and Third-ave. yesterday poon threw three men from the roof of the New-York Elevated Railroad station to the street beneath, injuring one seriously and two perhaps fatally. The upright pillars of the frame of the station were in place, and the workmen were yesterday engaged in putting the roof-girders in position. All except one had been riveted to the braces. A piece of scantling had been placed on the braces of the last two girders, and on this John Welsh stood, his riveting-hammer and chisel in hand. Two other workmen, wishing to cross to the ladder near Welsh, stepped on the scantling. Their united weight snapped the timber, and all fell to the street below. Welsh's leg was broken, and he was also injured in ternally. The other two men were both rendered unconscious from the concussion. The injured men were sent to Believue Hospital. It was afterward ascer-tained that Welsh resided at No. 65 Warren-st. One of the other men was identified as John Harding, of No. 161 West Nineteenth-st. The third, it is feared, will die his injuries. Neither his name nor address could be learned.

In less than two hours after this accident an up-train on the Metropolitan Railroad, standing at Bleecker-st., was run into from behind by a train, the steam-gauge on the engine of which was out of order. This engine was badiy damaged, as was also the rear car of the other train. The number of passengers on the train was not large, but great confusion prevailed. A lady and gentleman, who refused their names and address, were slightly injured in their hast to escape.

Later in the day sparks from an engine of the New-York Elevated Railroad set fire to the awning in front of the store of S. N. Lecompt, No. 216 Greenwich-st. The damage was $30.

DISASTERS AT SEA.

VESSELS THAT ARE REPORTED LOST OR MISSING. The British steamship Indus, of the Mercantile Steamship Company of London, left this port on September 4 for Havre with 88,000 bushels of grain, three-fourths of which was in bulk and the rest in bags. As she was expected to reach her destination within twenty days, and nothing has yet been heard of her arrival, there is some apprehension in regard to ber safety. The consignee, John C. Senger, of No. 17 William-st., says he has not yet given up all hopes. The Indus was built at Newcastle-on-Type in October last, and this was her first round trip to the United States. She was commanded by Captain Tyson, but the rest of the crew are not known. The vessel was of iron. Captain Ellingsen, of the Norwegian bark Silo, which arrived from Denmark yesterday, reports that during arrived from Denmark yesterday, reports that during the night of September 17, in latitude 40° 30' north, longitude 50° west, he passed a burning vessel, asparently Norwegian. The masts and rigging and the hull from forward to the masts and rigging and the hull from forward to the after cabin were burned to the water's edge, and the cargo, which he supposed to be grain, was burning. He passed within 1,200 feet of her, and saw several vessels lying by which had probably rescued the crew, as no one could be seen on board.

The American bark Columbia, which sailed from Anigua for this port on August 17, with a cargo of sugar and molasses, has not been heard from since that date, and fears are entertained for her safety. It is thought she may have been lost in the recent hurricane in the West Indies. She was commanded by Captain Dickerson and had a crew of eight men. and had a crew of eight men.

LAVISH USE OF A POLICEMAN'S CLUB. BREAKING THE ARM OF A MAN WHO WAS SITTING ON HIS OWN PORCH.

Officer Croley, of the Twenty-ninth Precinct, appeared at the Jefferson Market Court yesterday with John Keeley, who had just been discharged from Belle vue Hospital, and preferred a charge of assault and bat-tery against him. The officer declared that he ordered Keeley to move away from the stoop of No. 128 West Nineteenth-st., on which he was sitting, and that he refused. Seeing Keeley put his right hand in his back pocket, and believing that he was about to draw a rerolver, he struck him over the arm with his club, and woiver, he struck him over the arm with his citto, and broke the prisoner's arm. Keeley's story was that while sliting on the stoop of his house Croley ordered him to move on. When told he lived there, the officer ordered him to go in at once. He refused, whereupon Croley threatened to arrest him, and at once put his threat into execution. He resisted, when Croley began beating him with his club over the bead. In protecting his head his left arm was broken. The Justice discharged the prisoner, and on comprisint of Keeley the officer was piaced under arrest, and held for examination. He was released from custody on his own parole. stody on his own parole.

WORKING FOR A RAILROAD COMMISSION. New-York merchants who were actively interested in attempting to secure the passage of a bill by the last L-gislature to authorize a Board of Railroad Commissioners, and for the appointment of a committee to examine into and recommend plans for the improve-ment and management of the railroads of this State, have prepared a pledge to be presented to each candidate for the Assembly at the next election. This reads as follows: "The undersigned hereby pledges himself, as follows: "The undersigned hereof pieces's himself, if elected to the Assembly, to vote and use his utmost exaction and influence in support of a concurrent resolution, anthorizing the Senate and Assembly to appoint a ioint committee for the purpose of inquiring into and investigating the management of the railroads of this flate, with power to send for persons and papers, and to take testimony under oath; also to vote for and give his support to a bill creating a Board of Railroad Commissioners for the State of New-York."

CHANGES AT THE CUSTOM HOUSE.

It was generally reported at the Custom House yesterday that in addition to the changes mentioned in yesterday's TRIBUNE, the following officers will lose their positions: Deputy-Collector Knox McAfee, Dr. James R. Richards, of the Fifth Division; Samuel P Russell, warehouse superintendent; Willard Bullard and Ferdmand De Wigne, gaugers; and Dr. N. P. Rice, chief

SEEKING TO RENEW ITS BUSINESS.

THE ATLANTIC MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY ASKING TO BE TAKEN OUT OF THE RECEIVER'S HANDS. Considerable interest is manifested in insurance circles in regard to the application of the Atlan-tic Mutual Life Insurance Company before Judge Westbrook, at Special Term in Albany, for a discontinuance of the special proceedings against the company, and for a restoration of it to the stockholders and policy-holders, on payment of the reasonable fees of the receiver and any proper and legal expenses, or for any other reliet in the premises which the Court may see fit to grant. Judge Learned, in an opinion affirming the order directing the receiver to convert the assets of the company into cash for distribution among the stock and policy-holders, stated that it was not desirable that the Court, through its officers, should carry on a life insurance business, even to continue the business until there should be an accumulation of funds sufficient to meet all the obligations of the company and pay its stock. The opinion further states: "Since August 1, 1877, this company has been in a receiver's hands. For several months prior thereto, proceedings had been pending. A deposit of $118,000 made in the Hope Banking Company was secured by collateral worth about $30,000, and that is uit the deposit is worth, according to the actuary's report. The whole capital stock is only $100,000, Now, without referring in detail to the facts which have appeared in regard to the company, it is apparent that its credit is gone. An opportunity had been afforded by the Special Term, before the appointment of a receiver, for the stockholders to make good the deficiency. They failed to do so. It is useless to attempt to for the stockholders to make good the deficiency. They failed to do so. It is useless to attempt to carry on this business, if the circumstances are such that any policy-holders will not probably in part pay any future premiums. I am satisfied, from all the circumstances, that an attempt to notify the policy-holders to pay their premiums would now be a failure. And not only would it be a failure, but it would result in injustice to them. Few would wish to pay premiums to the receiver of a discredited organization. And to forfeit their policies for non-payment would afford an opportunity for great speculation and wrong. It would be like that practice of some of these insurance companies which have acquired the sing name of 'freezing out' the policyholders. For these reasons I think the order should be affirmed."

affirmed.

The company and policy-holders now seek relief from this order. William Harnes and Senator Kernan, who appeared for them, claim that the company is solvent, and since being in the hands of a receiver, has acquired a surplus of over $100,000. They claim it would be great injustice under these circumstances to make the stockholders and policy-holders submit to the loss that would inevitably result to them if the order to convert the assets into cash should be carried out. This attempt to take the company out of the hands of a receiver, and allow it to continue business, after having discontinued business over a year ago, involves a new point, which is viewed with much interest. Judge Westbrook has not yet given his decision.

IMPROVING BELLEVUE HOSPITAL.

GIFT OF A BUILDING FOR SURGICAL OPERATIONS-SEVEN TOWERS, FOR SANITARY PURPOSES, BUILDING.

The Commissioners of Charities and Correction, some time ago, gave permission to William H. Osborne, a benevolent citizen of this city, to erect a building on the grounds of Bellevue Hospitai, to be used for surgical operations alone. This building is nearly completed, and is situated just south of the western wing of the main hospital. It is a one-story building, 135 feet in length by 35 feet wide, of brick with a sharp peaked roof, and rests on a stone foundation 5 feet in height. The total cost of this new hospital is $20,000 the entire expense being paid by Mr. Osborne. Tha physicians at Bellevue are much pleased with this addition to their facilities for attending patients. Inside it is to be a large open hall.

The Board of Apportionment has appropriated $10,000 for the crection of a building on the grounds of Bellevue for the accommodation of insane patients. The building will be over a hundred feet long, and will contain twenty rooms. It will be so constructed that the patients will have plenty of sun and air, which are considered by physicians essential to a proper treatment of this form of disease. It will be on the north side of the Medical College. A gallery is also to be added to the museum. But the most important of the improvements going on at Bellevue is the building of seven tall octagonal towers, of brown-stone and granite. Two of these towers have been finished, one on the northern and one on the southern side of the building, and they add to the architectural beauty of the hospital, relieving the sombre gray walls of much of their prison-like aspect. These towers connect with the main building on every floor, and contain the baths and closets of the hospital. Dr. Stephen Smith, a member of the Advisory Committee, said recently in reference to them: "The plan of building these towers has been urged for years. The odor and four air from the closets and bath-rooms, which before were situated between the wards in the main building, was perfectly unbearable at times, and added much to the unhealthy reputation from which Bellevue suffered. Physicians, nurses and patients had long complained of this, and the method of placing the objectionable features in a separate building, easily accessible, is to be tried. All the sewers under the hospital will be closed up if these on at Bellevue is the building of seven tall separate building, easily accessible, is to be trice, and the sewers under the hospital will be closed up if these towers work satisfactorily; and with the source of every offensive odor suppressed, Bellevue will become, as it ought to be, one of the first hospitals in the world." The towers will cost about $5,000 each, and two will be built on the northern alde of the hospital, two on the southern and three on the western side. DEAN STANLEY ON BIBLE REVISION.

Dean Stanley unexpectedly arrived this noon from New-Haven, and called on the Bible Revision Committee, now in session in the Bible House. Dr. Schaft, president of the committee, introduced the Dean to the members, and invited all to a lunch hastily prepared upon a telegraphic notice of the coming of the Dean. It was a very pleasant social gathering of three hours. Drs. Schaff, Woolsey, Crosby, Kendrick, Washburn and others made brief addresses of welcome in the name of the several denominations they represent in the American Bible Revision Committee, and the Dean in his own behalf and for the English Bible Revision Committee, of which he is a leading member, replied, speaking of the favorable impressions he had received everywhere, of favorable impressions he had received everywhere, of the regular progress and approaching conclusion of the revision work and the happy effect it would have not only upon the study and understanding of the Bible, but also in bringing together in true spiritual union the different branches of English-speaking Christendom. At 3:30 p. m. the Dean was taken in a carriage to the Pennsylvania Railroad Depot. He arrived last evening in Philadelphia and was the guest of Mr. Childs. After a short visit to Washington, and, perhaps, to Richmond, he will return to this city and will spend some days with Dr. Schaff, and in the country bome of Cyrus W.
Field. He will preach once in this city, will visit Ningura Falls and Causda, and return to England on November 3.

DRESS GOODS AND FINE TRIMMINGS. Prominent among the many openings of the week was that of the house of Le Boutillier Bros., No. 48 East Fourteenth-st., and No. 847 Broadway. John Le Boutillier has just returned from abroad, where he has been for some time engaged in making selections of dry goods for the house. A specialty in the black silk department is the "Cachmere Louvre" braid, a handsome silk, which is offered at $1 50 a yard and upward. A large lot of colored silks in all the new tints are sold at from 85 cents to $1 50 a yard. There is also a large as from 85 cents to $1.50 s yard. There is also a large assortment of trimming velvets. In the worsted dress goods department were many new fabries with the most unpronouncable names. Despite their name, they are handsome materials for Fall and Winter costnmes. The hosiery department is one of the larcest in the city, and is filled with samples of all the new colors and designs in these goods. The "cherry" hose is one of the latest styles shown here. The firm has lately added a "notion" department which comprises new fringes and dress trimmings of all descriptions.

SEIZING SMUGGLED GOODS.

Night Watchman Edward Welsh, of the Surveyor's Department, made an important seizure yes-terday of 19,800 choice cigars, which had been smurgled from a Havana steamer. Welsh discovered an express-wagon near West and Dey-sta., at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, the driver of which was acting in a suspi clous manner, and he jumped to the front seat and ordered the wagon to be driven to the Custom House. The dered the wagon to be driven to the Custom House. The driver attempted to bribe Weish, offering him $200 to let the eigars go, and followed this up with threats; but finding that Weish was not to be either bribed or intimidated, be jumped from the wagon and ran away to avoid arrest. Weish setzed the entire outfit and turned it over to the Customs officials. This setzure is estimated to be worth $1,500. The other setzures yesterday were 3,050 eigars, 3 pipes, 133 bottles of brandy and 7 bettles of bittlers from the steamship Carondelet, and 3 pieces of cloth and 4 pieces of linen from the steamship Suevia.

A COMPETING TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

It was announced yesterday that the Continental Telegraph Company had completed its line to and through Philadelphia from Jersey City, and that the cable to be laid between this city and the New-Jersey shore is completed and will be ready for delivery to-day, watch and chain, knocking him down and beating him severely before assistance reached him. Yesterday Craft made complaint before Justice Betts against Larkins and McGuirk of attempted highway robbery and assault with intent to kill, and warrants were issued for their arrest. Both Larkins and McGuirk, who are the only members of the gang now out of State Prison, have been a terror to the residents of Jamaica.

THE STATEN ISLAND MYSTERY.

ABANDONING THE ATTEMPT TO FIND ANNIE HOMMEL Coroner Dempsey, of Staten Island, met Mr. Cantine, of Saugerties, yesterday at an office in Broad-st. to decide upon further action in the case of the missing Annie Hommel, whose supposed body was not identified on Thursday when once more exhumed. In company with Mr. Cantine and Dr. Chipman there came from Saugerties on Tuesday night a young ealoon-keeper amed Ziegler. Last June, about five months after Annie Hommel's disappearance, a man and woman came into Ziegler's saloon and sent out for Schoenfeldt, the alleged betrayer of the girl. He came quickly and remained talking several minutes with them. They left the place soon after his departure and took the train for New-York. It was thought that perhaps Ziegler might be able to recognize Mrs. Myers, the keeper of a lying-in establishment on Staten Island, as the woman who visited his

After some discussion it was deemed best that Corone Dempsey should again visit Brooklyn with young Ziegler, who knew Annie Hommei well, in search of the se-called Lena Kingston. They found the old woman, who evaded the coroner's questions recently, but the girl was not to be found, and they were informed that she had been in this city for two days. The old woman was much more inclined to talk than formerly, and, as Ziegler understood the Low German she spoke, conversation was carried on readily. From her statements and those of the neighbors it was learned that Lena Kingston's real name was Koenigsten; that she had been living at service eight years in Brooklyn, and had the best of references. At last sae left her place and boarded with the old woman. There she was delivered of twins, one of which died, but the other is aive and shount tweive months old. Thus testimony removed all suspicion that the girl was Annie Hommel, and Zeglev and the coroner drove back. Dr. Chilman returned to Saugerties yesterday merning, and Mr. Cantine will soon follow, abandoning for the present the search for the missing woman. The combings of Annie Hommel's hair brought from Saugerties by the party were compared with the hair in Coroner Dempsey's possession and found to agree in color and texture. who evaded the coroner's questions recently, but the

A SINGULAR CASE OF CRIMINAL LIBEL.

Charles Jacques, age fifty-three, a tinsmith of No. 130 Myrtle-ave., Brookiyn, was yesterday found guilty in the Kings County Court of General Sessions, of oriminal libel against Judges Pratt and Barnard, Henry Hagner, and John C. Smith, lawyers, and four other persons, in circulating and pasting on fences and wails a placard setting forth that the gentlemen named were "frauds," "dishonest men," and "legal swindlers." Jacques testified that he was one of the executors of Frederick Whippie, who died eight years ago. It became necessary to mortgage a portion of the estate to pay the decedent's debts, and Hagner & Smith were employed to conduct the business. About $3,000 was raised by the morigage and furned over to them, but they never rendered an accounting. The witness began a suit against them, and paid $100 to his counsel, but the case was dismissed and he had to pay the costs. He attrib-uted his bad inck to the Judges and other persons named in his placard. The complainants were willing that a te prosequi should be entered to the indictmen ques insisted on being tried. ## SURVEY OF THE AMAZON.

The United States steamship Enterprise, which sailed from New-York on May 4, to survey the Amazon River in South America, has returned. Com-mander T. O. Selfridge claims to have found how far the navigable waters of the Amazon extend. The river was surveyed from the ocean to Madeira Falls, and for a distance of 500 miles the river was found to be navigable for vessels drawing twenty feet of water. Soundings were taken about every five minutes during the run of the vessel each day-a distance of about twenty miles. At Serpa, near the mouth of the Madeira, the river was found to be about a mile wide and sixty feet deep. Alice Strope, a little girl six years of age, and an orphan child of a doctor formerly living in Texas, was brought home as a passenger, and will be forwarded to relatives in Texas by the affleers. Her parents died at Santarem, on the Tapajos River, about 500 miles from Para.

FALL STYLES AT STEWARTS.

The resources of A. T. Stewart & Co. are so great that no regular opening day at the beginning of the season is observed, but goods are received and opened every day. In the suit department may always be found all the latest styles in fabrics and designs. On exhibition here yesterday was a suit of gold, garnet and brown bourrette, made with deep kilt on the underskirt; the overskirt draped and caught with bows of brocaded ribbon; pleated waist, with deep collar of brown satin. A walking costume of seal brown India cashmere had at the bottom of the underskirt a deep kilt finished with two narrow bands of London smoke satin. The dress was handsomely draped and edged with two bands of satin. The deep basque had the front laid in very fine pleats. The coat-sleeves had a cuff of fine pleats. This costume was finished with a long sleeveless sneque. In the department of evening dresses was one of white groa-grain silk and China crépe. The silk front was laid in small pleats from top to bottom of the skirt. The sides of crépe were laid in crosswise folds, cut in dismonds, edged with point applique lace, and caught over the ploated front with bows of white satin ribbon. THE COURTS.

ASSERTING HER MOTHER'S INSANITY. LITIGATION AMONG THE DESCENDANTS OF HENRY DICKERS.

Henry Dickers, one of the old residents of New-York, died in 1864, leaving an estate worth between $300,000 and $400,000, consisting chiefly of property in or in the vicinity of Fifty-seventh-st. His property was left jointly to his two daughters, Roxilla Keyser and Rachel Sayre. When Mrs. Keyser died in 1876, the will which she was supposed to have made, giving her property to her sister, could not be found, and Mrs. Sayre was accordingly appointed administratrix. Some of the descendants of Henry Dickers put in a claim upon the estate, and at the time that Mrs. Sayre was examined before Surrogate Calvin, she was suffering from Bright' disease and her mind was clouded. Her daughter, Mrs Elizabeth A. Greer, who had acted against her mother, began proceedings to have ner declared a lunatic. While the proceedings were pending, Mrs. Sayre died. Before she had been buried, Mrs. Greer began an action against her two only brothers. Henry D. and John R. Sayre, to restrain them from disposing of any of the property which they had received from the mother during her life. Mrs. Greer alleged that her mother was imbecile and had been under the under influence of Henry, who had thus obtained from her a large proportion of the estate. A conveyance to him of property valued at $100,000 was alleged to be a forgery. Judge Westbrook yesterday listened to the arguments of counsel on the motion of the plaintiff to continue an injunction, granted exparte by Judge Van Brunt. Among the papers were affidavits of Drs. Gray, Haumond, Clymer, Bogert and Vedder that Mrs. Sayre was only temporarily insane. Decision was began proceedings to have her declared a lunatic. bys. SCHWAB'S UNSUCCESSFUL SUIT.

After many delays, the trial of the action r $3,000 damages for mallelous presecution, brought by Justus Schwab against Officers Rooney and Mayorth, was tried in the Marine Court yesterday, before Judge Shea. A number of Schwab's Socialistic friends accompanied him to the court-room. He was arrested between 12 and 1 c'clock on the morning of Monday, July 21, for keeping his sulcon at No. 50 First-st. op at that hour. He cisimed that as Sunday was past, he as that hour. He cisimed that as Sunday was past, he was not violating the Sunday law, and as it was not yet 1 a.m., he had a right to beep discalon open on a weekday. The officers, he claimed, had no right to arrest tim. Schwab's version of the arrest was corroborated by his friends, who were playing cards in the saloon with him at the time. The officers were the witnesses in their own defence. The jury, after very brief deliberation, gave a verdict for the defendants.

CIVIL NOTES.

The argument for the substitution of Mr. Shafer for Mr. Kneeland as attorney for the plaintiff in the suit of Alexander Stewart against the heirs of th late A. T. Stewart, has been postponed again until next Wednesday. Judge Westbrook will devote the whole man, has twenty-five. The following are the complete

The counsel in the Erie-McHenry suits have dected ex-Judge Enoch L. Fancher as the America missioner to take the testimony of the railway officials, and it was stated yesterday that he had accepted the position, and that he would begin taking evidence next week. Mr. Jewett is still under examination in the London Ennking Association suits.

Charges were recently preferred against Rosette Ungar, vice-president of the Hungarian Congregation Ohab Z deck, of conduct unbecoming an officer and they were, after some investigation, laid upon the table for six weeks. Yesterday an application was made o Judge Westbrook for an order compelling the presi dent. Bernhard Schwartz, to reinstate Ungar as vice-president, in order that he might occupy his chair to-day, which is the first day of the Jewish year. The Court said that it could not grant a peremptory writ of this sort, but granted permission to renew the writ in an-other form. Ungar is meanwhile deprived of the privi-lege of sitting as vice-president.

The divorce suit of Mary L. Jamieson against David F. Jamieson, has been pending for nearly ro years. The plaintiff was granted $15 a week ali mony, and $400 counsel fees. Judgment was granted ermine the amount of permanent alimony. But as the defendant had refused to pay the temporary allmony, he was thrown into jail for contempt of court, and has been there many months. A motion was made yesterday before Judge Westbrook for an order compeling the plaintiff to go on with the reference. The defendant claimed that it could be shown that he was unable to pay any alimony, and that unless the plaintiff could be compelled to proceed, he was virtually a prisoner for life.
